

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., — April 25, 1892⁸⁹

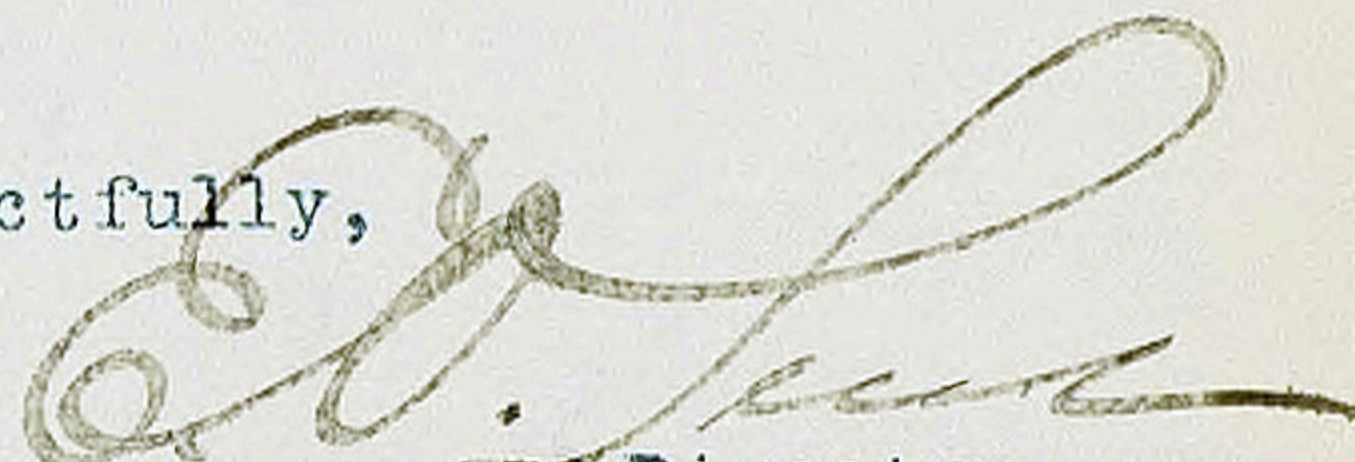

The Superintendent, U. S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

You are hereby instructed to inform the Scoville Manufacturing Co. that the contract made January 20, 1891, for the delivery of not less than 100,000 pounds of nickel five-cent blanks and 200,000 pounds of bronze one cent blanks, will be considered as having expired, and no further deliveries will be received on that contract.

Very respectfully,

Director.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 175

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
April 25, 1892

The Superintendent, U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

You are hereby instructed to inform the Scoville Manufacturing Co. that the contract made January 20, 1891, for the delivery of not less than 100,000 pounds of bronze one cent blanks, will be considered as having expired, and no further deliveries will be received on that contract.

Very respectfully,
E.O. Leech
Director.